

Alaska Psychiatric Institute Recovery Center & The Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium

present

Peer Support – Issues and Opportunities

Presenter: Robyn Priest, executive director,
Alaska Peer Support Consortium

8:30-9:30 a.m., Tues. Nov. 16

Learning purpose:

- definition and value of peer support
- issues and opportunities related to peer support
- opportunities for peer support growth

Frontline Behavioral Health is a monthly videoconference series for primary care providers, including physicians, mid-level practitioners, behavioral health clinicians, community health aides/practitioners and behavioral health aides.

- Call in toll free to 1-800-315-6338, then enter 7278#
- Beam in to video IP address 10.242.254.3, meeting room 3945

--- Third Tuesday of each month; No CEUs currently available. ---

Next month: End of Life Issues in the Psychiatric Population

Presenter: Jay Bryan, RN, API Hospital Education Coordinator

Topic: Issues facing end-of-life psychiatric patients, their families, and providers

For more information, visit <http://hss.state.ak.us/dbh/API>
For VTC assistance, contact Tom Elmore, 729-3910, telmore@afhcan.org, five working days prior to the training.

